

Suspected remains of *Bayou Teche (1918-1929) Plan Perspective

Mallows Bay, Potomac River, Maryland
Part of the Mallows Bay-Potomac River National Marine Sanctuary
[State number 18CH511; Army Number: 40; Shomette Survey Number: 37]

Recorded: 30 May - 8 June, 2022

Part of the Summer 2022 Maritime Archaeological Field School
Program in Maritime Studies, Department of History, East Carolina University

* Under review. Identification is questioned due to timber species analysis

Legend:

	Area name		Mud (accumulated on gravel)
	Timber name		Gravel
	Iron fastener head		Large gravel and pebbles
	Bent iron fasteners		Concrete
	Iron cross-bracing

Thanks to:

Maryland Historical Trust (Dr. Susan Langley)
NOAA's Maritime Heritage Program (Joseph Hoyt, Maddie Roth, & Pam Orlando)
NOAA's Mallows Bay-Potomac River National Marine Sanctuary (Sammy Orlando, William Sassorossi, & Tane Casserley)
Charles County Recreation, Parks, & Tourism (Carl Sharp & Frances Park)

Recorded by: Nathan Richards, Jason Raupp, Jeremy Borrelli, Allyson Ropp, Mark Keusenkothen, Jillian Schuler, Lindsay Wentzel, Nicholas Baker, Ian Dunshee, Madison Elsner, Dominic Fagnoli, Levi Holton, Olivia Livingston, Raymond Phipps, & Dayan Weller

Photographs by: Jeremy Borrelli and Jason Raupp (10 June 2022)

Digitization by: Nathan Richards